

Lea Menne, LL.M.

Rechtsanwältin | Düsseldorf

Lea Menne advises and represents national and international clients in all areas of intellectual property law. The focus of her work is on patent and trademark law as well as competition law. She continued her specialisation in these areas during the master's programme in intellectual property law at the University of Düsseldorf. Lea Menne was admitted to the bar in 2020. Prior to that, she had already been working as a research assistant for the Düsseldorf office of Preu Bohlig since 2019. During her traineeship, she worked for a major German law firm and a food manufacturer, among others.
